Therefore, to enforce norms the society takes recourse to sanctions. Culture introduction to sociology conflicts also are responsible for mental illness. And here the lions are the media.

The Perceptible and the Unseen: The Qur’anic Conception of Man’s Relationship to God and Realities Beyond Human Perception

Some norms are more specially stated than others; some have wide range of application than others; some permit individual interpretation to a greater extent than others. A practical translation of the idea of brotherhood leads to such social and moral virtues as hospitality, generosity, concern for others, and communal feeling. Many students will probably attribute the relative freedom of these individuals to the presence of these large companies, and their need to hire the best people regardless of caste.

Islam and Western Culture

There may be a certain amount of social pressure. So it's not just the rights of individuals; there is also a certain notion of the community that is very crucial.
