Pfeiffer's next role was that of high school teacher and former in the drama 1995 , which was co-produced under her company Via Rosa Productions. Luciano and his wife, , had small in the film. And I think it's unfair to simply label this as old fashioned 'chick-lit' because it's about so much more than what appears on the surface.

Ghostface

He is engaged to the young, beautiful, and equally impeccably bred May Welland, who is sweet sweet natured but naive. A self described dilettante who goes through the motions of being a lawyer, in an office where he has little to do.

Ghostface

Critical response towards the film was mixed, but writers acclaimed the actors' performances—most notably Depp and Pfeiffer's. Pfeiffer always discards old scripts in which she has written extensive notes about her characters, nor does she retain film reviews, magazine clippings or covers about her work or performances.

At Denme's personal recommendation, Pfeiffer joined the cast of 's 1988 , with and , playing the virtuous victim of seduction, Madame Marie de Tourvel. So rewarding it was, to be wooed by elegant prose and positioning: a plot that moves in practiced laps; a story that could be yours, mine, theirs; a setting that will always be known for b The air of ideas is the only air worth breathing.

Ghostface

. Pfeiffer's role is underwritten, but her performance is expert enough to make even diffidence compelling. The only thing I can remember of my first reading was the feeling I had as I turned the last page.
