These are recognizable at word endings, such as -ow Germanized -au, as in Spandau, -vitz or -witz and sometimes -in. Direct contact between Germans and Slavs caused direct language exchange of language elements due to the bilingualism of people or the spatial proximity of the speakers of the respective language.

Ostsiedlung

Sanitation In 1844 described how untreated sewage created awful odours and turned the rivers green in industrial cities.

Ostsiedlung

Investigators remained open-minded as to whether Harper's murder had been committed by the same person, and telephone and computer connections were established between the incident room in the Leeds district of and Leith. In this case, the involvement of the affected communities and other interest groups in the fight against these threats remains pivotal to the insulation of the very communities for sustainable security.

Maurice Larkin

Again, landings were preceded by carrier strikes against the Philippines, Formosa, and the Ryukyus. Arkwright and his partners used water power at a factory in Cromford, Derbyshire in 1771, giving the invention its name.
