Robert A. Heinlein bibliography

Van Vogt was one of the giants on whose shoulders other later sci-fi authors would stand.

12 PBS BY A.E. VAN VOGT, DESTINATION:UNIVERSE,MONSTERS,WIZARD OF LINN,CHANGELING

Maynard pictured himself walking along this monster-inhabited, night-enveloped island.

Destination: Universe! by A.E. van Vogt

Great things were expected of Venus. While you're on the website, be sure to look at the artwork they usually include with each original story.

Best of the Golden Era

Set in Victorian England, the novel follows a scientist who develops a machine that can move him forwards and backward in time. This question is still very valid when you want to think about the human condition.

Science Fiction: The Science Fiction Research Association Anthology book

However, far fewer people have actually read the Michael Crichton book, as most just opt to watch the Steven Spielberg movie instead. Although showing similar themes and components, the story is not a considered a sequel, as it involves an entirely unrelated plot. If you do subscribe and find yourself not reading the stories for lack of time, consider using Rocket Stack Rank's to pick out the most-recommended stories and then just read those.
