Nationalists also claimed they were bringing security and direction to an ungoverned and lawless country.

Spanish Civil War

In the thirty-six hours following the election, sixteen people were killed mostly by police officers attempting to maintain order or to intervene in violent clashes and thirty-nine were seriously injured. Some 5,000 German air force personnel served in the Condor Legion, which provided air support for coordinated ground attacks against Republican positions and carried out aerial bombings on Republican cities.
