The provisions and fuel or so much thereof as may be necessary which, at the death of any person, shall have been laid in for consumption in his family, shall remain for the use of such family, if the same be desired by any member of it, without account thereof being made. If none of the heirs is willing to serve, then any other person may apply to become administrator. If we do, we prepare the documents for applying for Probate or Letters of Administration together with some general authorities that will assist us in administering the estate, we attend on the executors or administrators to sign the documents and then we file the application with the High Court registry nearest to where the person resided at the date of their death.
