Our Lady of Good Counsel Parish, Mourne Road, Drimnagh, Dublin 12

There is truly something for everyone! In that sort of atmosphere, it is likely that there will be more chance for holiness to take root, and that we will see more saintly individuals.

Edel Quinn Envoy of the Legion of Mary by Leon Joseph Suenens

Her dedication to the mission of the legion, even in the face of her ill health brought her great admiration inside and outside the legion. In answer to the threat represented by these successive revolutions, Mary has repeatedly appeared and asked for repentance, a turning away from sin, to avoid disaster. Here straight away we can see that there are links to some of the other Marian aspects which I mentioned just now.

The Legion requires ecclesiastical approval to work in a diocese or parish. The members participate in the life of the parish through visitation of families, the sick, both in their homes and in hospitals and through collaboration in every apostolic and missionary undertaking sponsored by the parish. Duff subsequently laid down the system of the Legion in the Handbook of the Legion of Mary in 1928.
