Europe 1992 and its Impact on Pacific Futures

The General Report brings you up to date on how the EU is delivering on its 10 priorities, including action to boost jobs and the economy and the trade deals with Canada and Japan.

The state of play regarding the deepening agenda for Economic and Monetary Union

Poland and Romania are the first Member States to pilot this initiative, with two regions each. Linking the EU Emissions Trading System with similar systems increases the market size for reducing greenhouse gas emissions, thereby cutting the cost of fighting climate change. Another informal meeting of Heads of State or Government took place in November in Gothenburg, Sweden, to discuss education and culture.

The state of play regarding the deepening agenda for Economic and Monetary Union

Commissioner Günther Oettinger presenting the final report on simplified rules for EU funds under the next budgetary framework after 2020 at a press conference in Brussels, 11 July 2017. For a technical assessment of the various different design options for a European unemployment insurance scheme, see Koester, G.

In Dirty Chains? Purchasing and Greener Manufacturing

A considerable amount has been achieved, but bottlenecks remain, particularly in the field of electricity.
