Sometimes these align with a natural geographic feature like a river to form a border or barrier between nations.

Diplomacy

Thus, the features of New Diplomacy are almost entirely different from the features of Old Diplomacy. See Hamilton and Langhorne, pp. In the modern context then, a system dominated by states, we can reasonably regard diplomacy as something being conducted for the most part between states.

Diplomacy (Cha)

France, which boasted the largest foreign affairs department, had only some 70 full-time employees in the 1780s.

Diplomacy: Meaning, Nature, Functions and Role in Crisis Management

Conferences are usually much larger in scope—dozens of leaders may meet to discuss or border issues, trade, or the environment. It is the natural right of the people to know everything about the affairs of their government.
