Small towns, rural

They are also, however, extremely diverse. However, the Rajarhat story reflects traits that are both distinctive and also link to changes witnessed across rural India. But what the Rajarhat story also signals in a broader sense is the overwhelming transformations that Indian rural society has undergone over the last few decades, the changing power relationships and the consequences, the heterogeneity of Indian rural social space, its stratification and deeply entrenched economic and social divisions.

Rural Urban

The caste perspective, in turn, while adding to the debate on the relevance of caste consciousness in a bhadralok dominated Bengali society, also symbolizes this relationship.

Regional and Rural Development Planning

Strong linkages can improve the living conditions and employment opportunities of both rural and urban populations.

“Rural

There are two local leaders—Bhajai Sardar and Aftabuddin—each controlling roughly 135 syndicates, the former a low-caste Hindu, the latter a Muslim. In the absence of industrial investment and the much promised jobs, CPIM leaders decided to award a form of political compensation to the dispossessed, allocating informal contracts to local youth for providing construction material in their neighborhoods.
