Thesis Collection

Information retrieval research developed out of the work of Cyril Cleverdon, F. The objective of the study was to find out the level of availability of library materials in the university, and determine the extent of use of the materials by lecturers.

Journals

On the other hand, the employment of a comparatively small number, particularly if the notions represented by the terms are not supposed to overlap, makes the indexing process considerably more difficult.

Thesis Collection

Chapter 3 reviews literature on descriptive metadata and suggests strategies for improving resource discovery of archival holdings. Literature was collected from the following databases: EbscoHost SocIndex, Psycinfo, Psycarticles, Psychology and behavioural sciences, Child development and adolescent studies and Family studies ; Informit Family and Society Plus ; ERIC; National Criminal Justice Reference Service; Social Care Online; Proquest; Google and Google Scholar.
