CAIN: Macrory Report, June 1970

The amended form of the 1911 Act has been used four times. We noted the emphasis that you placed upon the need to further the social and economic development of Northern Ireland, as well as the paramount importance of political stability, without which that development must inevitably be frustrated. We firmly believe that in adopting this approach we are giving the most helpful and constructive service we can to assist in resolving the important and difficult problems raised by our Terms of Reference.

Report of the Committee of Privy Councillors appointed to inquire into the interception of communications

The fact that the administration of justice was involved was the governing consideration in the mind of Viscount Tenby, and it is easily to be understood that the importance of that consideration led him to the conclusion that the action which he took was in all the circumstances of the case justifiable. While the remains in force, to date only has been convicted under it.

Race Report

The Police ought not to be handicapped in their efforts to prevent or to detect crime, whilst the criminal is allowed to use every modern method to achieve his purpose. Provided that nothing in this section shall extend to the opening, detaining or delaying of a postal packet returned for want of a true direction, or returned by reason that the person to whom it is directed has refused it, or has refused or neglected to pay the postage thereof, or that the packet cannot for any other reason be delivered, or to the opening, detaining or delaying of a postal packet under the authority of this Act or in obedience to an express warrant in writing under the hand of a Secretary of State. Changing circumstances during the past twenty years have made some acts serious offences that were not previously so regarded.

Report of the Committee of Privy Councillors appointed to inquire into the interception of communications

It was not possible to discover the exact number of interceptions in earlier years, but only the number of warrants issued; the discrepancy between these two figures would, however, be very small indeed. We visited a centre where telephone tapping is operated and we ourselves held a telephone conversation that was tapped and recorded by a machine in our presence.
