Channel Islands Live: 30 July

People become members for lots of different reasons, and this 21 June to 4 July 2021 we want to encourage everyone to JoinACoop. As 1941 wore on, shops opening was limited to Tuesdays, Fridays and Saturdays. Far from it; there very occupation of the ports which had hitherto provided Jersey with its only supplies of imported food meant that the island was completely isolated from the outside world, and its occupants risking starvation.

Big Ferry Fortnight

Even the tobacco and cigarette ration was increased. There was also an increased distribution of milk. Historically the Channel Islands have never been immune to these occurrences, however the sudden frequency of these tremors and quakes, ten now reported in less than two weeks must be making people wonder what on earth is going on under their feet and oceans and are we in line for something more substantial? It would take weeks to drive around Britain and get over to Ireland to see just a fraction of the magical countryside and culture-packed cities you can enjoy by cruise ship in under a fortnight.

6 reasons to cruise around the British Isles

Greenwich Royal Naval College and Observatory, London — viewed from the river with. With destinations from across the British Isles, Ireland and Europe making the list, holidaymakers from the UK and Isle of Man can enter a public ballot, at , to win free tickets so they can enjoy these sights themselves.

Channel Islands Live: 1 October

Most ships feature a selection of play areas, games rooms, live entertainment and cinemas. In Jersey, the Heath and Social Services Department is hoping to recruit 10 more foster households. Any which went through official channels for slaughter at the abattoir was taken by the Germans and the only pork officially available to islanders was of poor quality from France.

Channel Islands Live: 21 January

Semi-independent, they were nonetheless the only part of the British Isles to be occupied by the Nazis. In May the meat ration was cut to 4 ounces but the first tablets of soap - one each - for months went on sale. Through working together, we are all making a real difference to our communities.
