Ewald's influence is felt in the History of the Jewish Church by Dean Stanley, in England.

Commentaries

The earliest commentaries we hear of are from the heretical circles of the Gnostics. Beginning in 1844 a number of dictionaries appeared in rapid succession.

It forces me to think through or at least recognize the issues that scholars have wrestled with on a given subject, which helps me check my own biases and assumptions. Cheyne, who wrote a helpful commentary on the Prophecies of Isa 1880-81 , and subsequently commentaries on Micah and Hosea Cambridge Bible , Jeremiah Pulpit Commentary , and on The Book of Psalms 1884 , has become more and more extreme in his opinions.
