Independent Healthcare Provider Network

Following arrangements set out in the NHS Winter Preparedness Plan, the private sector hospitals will primarily support planned urgent care and cancer treatment, including breast surgery, urology, and gynaecology. NHS England and the Independent Healthcare Providers Network are holding talks in a bid to thrash out a deal that will satisfy the Treasury.

Nightingale hospitals ‘not being used’ amid surging Covid cases and NHS staff shortages

Twenty-nine hospital trusts and boards out of 157 had not met any waiting-time target in the year 2017—2018.

Covid: NHS bosses in London ‘uncomfortable’ over private work as hospitals buckle

So far, 177 patients have died in the United Kingdom after testing positive for coronavirus. However, this is the first time nursing numbers have fallen since 2008. But it is absolutely vital that this is matched by successful and comprehensive adoption of the public measures needed to cut the spread of the virus.
