Ancient Plants and People: Contemporary Trends in Archaeobotany on JSTOR

The use of this database makes data integration between specialists easier due to the shared data structure and metadata description, but often the primary archaeobotanical data is not made publicly available.

Archaeobotany

She carries forward that interest in technology to the early historic period in the Upper Ganga plains, with the excavations at Indor Khera that she has co-directed.

Science Notes

Archaeobotanical data from two Middle and Later Bronze Age round house sites in Cork, Ireland. Silchester Roman Town: The Insula IX Town Life Project: Volume 3. Iron Age and Roman Arable Practice in the East of England.

Archaeobotany

A new archaeobotanical database program. Third, it assesses data reuse practices in archaeobotany, before exploring how these research practices can be improved to benefit the rigour and reuse of archaeobotanical research. The data that is being shared is not in forms amenable to reuse.

Archaeobotany

Here, recommendations are discussed for improving these data practices within archaeobotany, of applicability more widely in archaeology.
