There are five known watercolours of Wainui and the surrounding Akaroa Harbour from this period and the Gallery is fortunate to hold four of them.

Rhona Haszard

Haszard was swept off her feet and out of her marriage, somehow overlooking how scandalous this would be, particularly in the socially moribund Christchurch of the period.

Her life was cut short at the age of thirty when she fell off a four-storey tower at Victoria College, Alexandria in 1931, the night after her last exhibition opened. A simple expression of love you might say, but listen right to the end and then say with confidence what happens next.

Rhona Haszard

This issue is special for a range of reasons; some positive, some less so. Here is just the thing. If your life is focused on making art, how are you going? She is one of the most internationally significant New Zealand-born artists to date.
