These celebrations feature processions in which the daughters of prominent families are splendidly dressed as Reina Elena Queen Helena , and accompanied by male escorts and a parade of other couples.

Philippine Independence Day 2020 rites showcase Filipino discipline, key to fighting COVID 19

Mass on the night before Easter is followed by the reenactment of the meeting of the resurrected Christ and his grieving mother represented by life-sized statues carried in procession. For three hundred years, the Philippines was a colony of Spain. With merely a sharp, clipped hiss, mothers can show displeasure to their children; anyone can use a softer, somewhat more prolonged hiss as a very informal means of catching someone's attention.
