On the lines of the 'Revolt of 1857', Veer Savarkar thought of the guerrilla war for attaining Independence. After 1937, he started traveling widely, becoming a forceful orator and writer, advocating Hindu political and social unity.

The real Vir Savarkar

Yet, he is branded as communal, fascist, a sympathiser of the Nazis and Hitler. Focusing his energies on writing, Savarkar authored the Hindu Pad-pada-shahi — a book documenting the — and My Transportation for Life — an account of his early revolutionary days, arrest, trial and incarceration. ## Veer Savarkar: Ideologue of Hindutva

Savarkar often compared Germany's German majority and Jewish minority as analogous to India's Hindu majority and Muslim minority, though Savarkar never mentioned the persecution of Jews in Germany. The case excited much controversy as was reported widely by the French press, and it considered it involved an interesting international question of the right of asylum.
