Inventory of the William J. Casey papers

Most consumer products companies will not make the investment in personnel or funds to have their products analyzed in this way.

California

Math Programs at MIT: SAINT, MACSYMA, STUDENT ANALOGY Slagle, Moses, Bobrow, Evans MIT The initial use of programs to solve complex mathematics was not a matter of rote application of straightforward computations, but rather involved programs that could actively figure out what that solution or a close approximation might be.
