That other hoped-for change - a shift in the balance of power from legislature to cabinet - has been somewhat slower to emerge, as a result of the absence, until 2001, of its fundamental political prerequisite: a united governing coalition sustained by a disciplined majority. In the context of the Trump presidency, these larger existential questions may indeed ring true, but one hopes they are also a far-too-early shot across the bow. The scope of political activity and sometimes even the simple physical security of the Jewish community itself were subject to the sufferance of the larger community of which it was a part.

The Presidential Empire

The polarization penetrated deep into Italian society. The electorate to the first chamber was only about one-tenth the size of that for the second chamber.

It was simply assumed, with little explicit thought of exclusion, that the institutions of Zionism were established by and for Jews. A second issue that calls for more research is the development and shifts of farmer politics.

The Presidential Empire

Someone should look into this. The other conditions facilitating corruption clientelism, organized crime, inefficient public administration remain in place, albeit somewhat weakened.

Elections in Denmark

Much of this ideological force, as expressed in Labor Zionism, Revisionism, or other variants, represented at least on the surface a revolution against the Jewish past.
