The inclusion of many modern touches makes your stay as comfortable as possible, while still retaining the historic character of the cottage.

Second Life Marketplace

Early 20th century There are still people on the Glebe Estate who were born there and have lived there all their lives. After an initial experiment with grander dwellings on Devonshire Road, the Estate became dominated by small-but-perfectly formed cottage terraces, whose large windows and fires in each room, with front and back gardens, ensured warmth and the healthy free circulation of air.
