Thus, similarities between the adoptee and biological parents can be regarded as estimates of genetic influences, while similarities between the adoptee and the adoptive parents may be thought of as estimates of environmental influences. In line with this hypothesis, Carey 1992 suggests that MZ twins may imitate one another more than DZ twins, and that this phenomenon could lead to an overestimation of heritability.

Two Virginia Prosecutors Renounce State's 'Death Machine'

This is the reason for them being mostly against the death penalty.

Crime and Punishment

Encourage compliance with legislation in the public sector Unit code: PSPLEG002 Unit description: This unit describes the skills required to encourage colleagues in the workplace to comply with legislation. Twenty-two of our sister states have shut down their death chambers, and yet in modern times, Virginia has been particularly ready to kill.

Two Virginia Prosecutors Renounce State's 'Death Machine'

To the extent that the similarity observed in MZ twins is greater than that in DZ twins, genetic influences may be implicated. The Ten Commandments is a prime example of this. Because this was a nonclinical sample, very few subjects met Diagnostic and Statistical Manual-III criteria for antisocial personality.
