Arms Control Strategies for a New Administration

Today, arms control exists in a post-truth, conspiracy-minded world in which disinformation is rampant, verifiable facts are elusive, and credible information is under sustained and systematic attack. Equally important is safely resuming bilateral inspections to ensure New START compliance, as well as ensuring the Bilateral Consultative Commission can safely meet to sustain technical interactions—both of which were halted due to the pandemic.

Such talks would provide a useful venue for U. There are reasons to maintain ICBMs in the force mix, but the current number of 400 deployed missiles is unnecessary.

U.S.

Our deterrence must never be placed in jeopardy. Moscow often struck a pose not of disinterest, but of less interest—likely for bargaining purposes. Within little more than a decade, the treaty was abandoned.

Third, extension would continue the flow of information that the U. But as Putin faces protests in the street and Biden deals with recalcitrant Republicans in Congress, the two countries might at least avoid direct conflict with one another. When he announced his intention to withdraw, he said, as he did today, that he thought the Russians would seek a new deal; they did not.
