Thus, Titus and his brother are related in the first degree, for from the father to each of them is counted only one degree. Perhaps we should ask the people in charge of the second highest Methodist Church in England what they think....

Staff View: Handmaid of the Holy Spirit :

Sir John seems to have been prospering in his affairs, for we find him at this time purchasing and adding to his estate in Warrington some of the lands of his neighbour Richard Patten, a good name still happily no stranger to the place Warrington in 1475, p. There she offended magistrates in Massachusetts and Rhode Island by returning to preach again and again and again, after being stripped, whipped from town to town while tied to the back of a cart, and abandoned in the forests. But it nowhere appears that sir Thomas Boteler had imbibed this innocent taste or spent any money upon it, or that might have helped to account for his being in debt.
