Remains of bronze foundries under the direct control of the royal house have been discovered at Zhengzhou , Anyang and other places.

Shang

Gaotao formulated laws for Yu the Great, quelling those who opposed Yu the Great so as to stabilize the social order.

The Slave State of the Shang and Zhou Dynasties

Tools for farm production used during the Zhou period were not much different from those of the Shang Dynasty. Their style and technique exercised a far-reaching influence on the architecture of later ages, and the knowledge of applied mechanics was already fairly advanced. That set in motion a competition among local rulers to attract the best and brightest of them to their own royal court.

The Slave State of the Shang and Zhou Dynasties

Ironblade bronze battleaxes of the Shang have been unearthed recently but not iron farm implements.

Ancient China

This victory is known as the Battle of Mingtiao, fought during a thunderstorm.
