about a grandfather and his family, who take a visit to his childhood home in an attempt to capture a part of him that was lost. He was born in , England, but now lives in Florida.

Boy River, MN Real Estate

When grandad is in hospital she swims through the river and the sea to see her grandad but does she see him. I was rather fond of what the River Boy stood for, but the author kept importuning the reader with superfluous attempts to jog their remembrance of his bearing semblance to the grandfather over and over and over again that it was eventually reduced into an atom of negligent essentiality.
