Nathan the Wise, Minna von Barnhelm, and other plays and writings : Lessing, Gotthold Ephraim, 1729

He fought always for truth and combined a penetrating intellect with shrewd common sense. Wuill, German Literature of the 18th and 19th Centuries, edited by A.

Full text of Nathan der

Nathan remembers the bitter disappointment the Templar has just experienced and the thoughtless passion of youth, both of which would lead him to rash and ill-considered words. Murray Abraham plays the title character in this play from 1779, by the German critic and philosopher Gotthold Ephraim Lessing, a leading light of the European Enlightenment. You better know what was my meaning, Nathan.

Nathan The Wise

Surely, surely, You're not amusing me--And does she know That I'm arrived? How is it The simple mind is ever in the right? Whereas ancient religions needed textual codification in order to provide human beings with guidance in their lives, eventually reason would free humankind of this necessity.
