Access is to be provided to, through, and within the buildings, without loss of function, space, or facility where the general public is concerned. It would be prudent for a designer to take into consideration the space requirements necessary for accessible EVCS based on the total projected number of EVCS planned for the site, in addition to future accessible route requirements, so that the future installation of EVCS can be accommodated, but accessibility provisions are not required unless electric vehicle charging equipment is installed. For assistance in developing a hazard assessment form or completing such an assessment, call Health, Safety and Environment at 822-2029.
