Newspaper reporting of the April 2007 eruption of Piton de la Fournaise part 1: useful information or tabloid sensationalism?

There are updates in between, but only to selected categories, and not every year. You need to learn how to write to the images your audience will see on TV.

Chapter 3. Assessing Community Needs and Resources

Careers as a reporter or news correspondent

Practice speaking more quietly while maintaining your clear tone. Ask when the story will run, and then get clippings of the story when it's out for your own records or a recording, if it aired on television or on the radio. That is, there is a dominance of news about celebrities, entertainment, lifestyle features, personal issues and television culture.
