On July 20 Guillermo Ungo, the leader of the leftist FDR, said his group would join in the negotiations proposed by the group, provided it would enable them to negotiate with the Salvadorean Government and the United States. While the censors may have disappeared from the printing companies, the printing companies and advertising companies remain in the hands of the State. They saw the torture apparatus and the secret cells where prisoners had scrawled their names on the walls.

Salvadoran Armed Forces Stoking Old Tensions in Chalatenango

They confirmed that there were no survivors. The right was not content to leave all repression up to the security forces however, and the death squad known as the Union Guerrera Blanca UGB--White Warrior Union soon made its presence known in the assassination of any one known or thought to be connected with the guerilla movement. As we will see, in the dense web of human rights and international humanitarian law treaties, there is an explicit mention of amnesties in only one provision: an additional protocol to the Geneva Conventions relating to non-international armed conflict.

El Salvador After 1979: Forces In The Conflict

On May Day 1930, 80,000 workers and peasants marched into San Salvador demanding minimum wages for farm workers and relief centers for the unemployed.
