Toledo Consolidated Plan for 1995

Executive Summary

Increased access to programming occurs through collaboration and network of resources, sharing program specific data and through accessible public transportation. The missing element is the coordination of these resources.

Toledo

The analysis of that data and the resultant strategy is the centerpiece of the Consolidated Plan.

Toledo Consolidated Plan for 1995 Executive Summary

THAC held a strategy retreat at which the focus of the meeting material was the Consolidated Plan requirements and the element of citizen participation. This leadership role must be assumed by those with the greatest investment in the community: schools, businesses, hospitals, community-based organizations and most importantly the residents. It describes actions to foster public housing improvement and resident initiatives, and describes actions to reduce the number of poverty level families.
