HISTORY of the UPPER PENINSULA of MICHIGAN

It is eminently fitting that once a year our people should set apart a day for praise and thanksgiving to the Giver of Good, and, at the same time that they express their thankfulness for the abundant mercies received, should manfully acknowledge their shortcomings 10 and pledge themselves solemnly and in good faith to strive to overcome them.

Spencer in the autumn of 1879. After these things transpired, and finding that I should resist all such wicked conduct, and knowing that he could no longer maintain himself as a respectable citizen, he has seen fit to leave Nauvoo, and that very abruptly. You will be interested to know that the pupils in the early schools studied their reading aloud at the top of their voices.
