If you're interested in going for hikes, I don't believe you'd be disappointed. It's affordable, has beautiful surroundings, and if covid ever settles down, you're a quick hop across the border to get on the I-75 and start exploring Michigan. St Vincent Street UP Church, 261 St Vincent Street 2.

Hello from Alberta! : SaultSteMarie

Winters aren't as cold as Edmonton either, although probably more snow.

About the area

Added comment: the weir failed, there was a landslide, and the factory buildings were demolished. If you love things like fishing, swimming, snowmobiles and sea doos and such, hikes, whatever, it's great for that.

Snuff Mill Bridge

My grandparents live in the area and my husband and I both have easily relocatable careers, and as they're getting older and charmingly loonier we'd really like to be closer to them while also starting a new adventure together. Health services were virtually non-existent at that time on the south side of the City.

River Birds

The first parish school was built across the road on a site now undemeath the railway. Why do they stay under the stones? Now go through the wood and look out for.

Cathcart Castle
