Carcanet Press

Press releases: Jakov Lind, Landscape in Concrete; Jean Genet, The Thief's Journal; Marquis de Sade, The 120 Days of Sodom. Neither a plant drawing sap from the depths of the earth nor an animal, nor a man, nor wind walking between the clouds.

The Collected Poems, 1956

Lots of people never even get that far. It also increased recognition for such poets as Robert Duncan, Robert Creeley, Denise Levertov, Paul Blackburn, and Charles Olson. It means you are aware of your own wrongdoing.

Carcanet Press

This allows them to continue to feel I owe them something and to resent me for it.

The Collected Poems by Plath, Sylvia

In 1960, Allen moved from New York to San Francisco, where he established Grey Fox and the Four Seasons Foundation, two significant literary presses where he continued to publish work from Beat, , Black Mountain, and New York School writers, as well as younger new voices. May we live in a world of forgiveness.

No Speaking of Past Regrets

In 1958, Allen began work on his most important project at Grove, The New American Poetry anthology. Milosz gets there, and he speaks with such power and grace. Bought it for someone else, but couldn't give it away.

Electronic Poetry Center

Scope and Contents of Series Series 1 PRESS COLLECTIONS: Correspondence, manuscripts, and publishing materials regarding the six presses with which Allen was associated. Does not mean the same thing as not to regret past speaking.

Dorn, Edward [WorldCat Identities]

At least nothing I can come up with. First edition, saddle-stapled printed wrappers, 1200 copies, letterpress printed.
