Quintus Mucius contra naturam societatis talem pactionem esse existimavit et ob id non esse ratam habendam. Sequitur ut de exceptionibus dispiciamus.

Imperatoris Iustiniani Institutionum. Libri Quattuor. With Introduction, Commentary, and Excursus.

Si servus domino noxiā commiserit, actio nulla nascitur: namque inter dominū et eum qui in eius potestate est nulla obligatio nasci potest.

Consensu fiunt obligationes in emptionibus venditionibus, locationibus conductionibus, societatibus, mandatis. Hoc amplius interdum et in incertam personam collocata voluntas domini transfert rei proprietatem: ut ecce praetores vel consules qui missilia iactant in vulgus ignorant quid eorum quisque excepturus sit, et tamen, quia volunt quod quisque excepereit eius esse, statim eum dominum efficiunt. Potest autem quis etiam singulas res per fideicommissum relinquere, veluti fundum, hominem, vestem, argentum, pecuniam numeratam, et vel ipsum heredem rogare ut alicui restituat, vel legatarium quamvis a legatario legari non possit.
