Zhongguo xin wen yi da xi, 1949

Traditional Chinese culture was very weak in modern Chinese society after the Opium Wars. After the overthrow of the Qing dynasty and founding of the Republic of China in 1912, the imperial system collapsed, which challenged the hierarchical order of traditional Chinese culture. And why is traditional Chinese culture worthy of being preserved? Hong Kong: The Chinese University Press, 1998.

Although the microscope was invented by the Europeans in the modern era, it can still be used as an instrument to study ancient bacteria in Africa, which existed long before their discovery under the microscope. Moral Subjectivity in Confucianism and the Rejection of Metaphysical Interpretation Confucianism, according to Lao, emphasizes only the moral self. For practical maxims, Mencius emphasised not only self-transformation but also social transformation.
