Middle Management Academy

Takeuchi R, Chen G, Lepak DP: Through the looking glass of a social system: cross-level effects of high-performance work systems on employee attitudes. A core element of the emergent approach is that change managers work together with the organization instead of directing change from the top , and for change to happen managers must work on themselves, change their own behavior and challenge their own assumptions and values in order to understand what they ask of their co-workers ;.
