Citizenship in a Republic

In March 1917, Congress gave Roosevelt the authority to raise a maximum of four divisions similar to the , and Major was put in charge of both the general organization and recruitment. These were the things that happened. We are not playing 'puss in the corner' with the criminals.

6 Lessons From Teddy Roosevelt On What It Means To Be An American

Today he lives abroad, a self-expatriated American. We roped and threw it; then we built a little fire, took out a cinch-ring, heated it at the fire; and the cowboy started to put on the brand. The Marquis was a gallant but exaggerated Frenchman, with odd feudal notions still clinging in his brain.

Theodore Roosevelt the citizen, by Jacob Riis...

The man who, if born to wealth and power, exploits and ruins his less fortunate brethren is at heart the same as the greedy and violent demagogue who excites those who have not property to plunder those who have. The red man has no better friend than the Great White Father of to-day, none who burns with hotter indignation at the shame our dealings with him have brought upon the American name. Every thief, cut-throat, and blackmailer who had place and part in the old order of things joined in the howl.

Theodore Roosevelt the Citizen by Jacob A Riis

Bankers, beginning with financial houses in London and New York, saw Latin America as prime opportunities for investment. It is with this as I said before: we sometimes forget the man of words in the man of deeds. By then many Republicans were opposed to Taft, and the president felt that lobbying too hard for the treaties might cause their defeat.

Theodore Roosevelt the Citizen by Jacob A Riis

Astor was beaten, and, in anger, quit the country. Merely to sit in an office and hold down a job, a title, or a salary, was not his way.
