What these organisations are, is a question to be decided in the particular case, having regard to the circumstances in each particular country at the time when the choice fails to be made. Multi-stakeholder partnerships and voluntary commitments should strengthen implementation by involving a range of relevant stakeholders. The publications are distributed in print and electronic formats around the world.

United Nations: Key Conference Outcomes on Social Development

Many of the assumptions on which the IDS had been based were upset by the historic forces that were thus set in motion. Achieving a balance between work and family life should be a shared responsibility of all social partners, needing creative thinking as regards adequate childcare and retraining for returning women workers Mr.
