Fishponds, Frenchay and Staple Hill, BS16 Towards the north-eastern part of Bristol, you will find the interestingly named Fishponds, a large suburb about three miles from the city centre. You can amble along the quaysides, admiring the snazzy yachts and gazing up the estuary to the Severn Bridge and Royal Portbury Dock from the pier beyond the tidal lock. Alongside neighbouring Bedminster, Southville now boasts a thriving independent restaurant and bar scene, as well as becoming an emerging arts hub, pioneered by the live graffiti festival Upfest and proximity to renowned gallery Spike Island.

BT Tower

Recording its popular public radio program in front of Portland audiences, stitches together sketch comedy, music, and confessions in a variety show format. The BT Tower was given Grade II status in 2003. Panoramic view from BT Tower in the evening.
