"On the Brink of the Abyss" Winston Churchill in the Great War

Anyone can see that the Italian Dictator is hard-pressed. Churchill makes his final visit to the United States.

A speech by the Prime Minister the Right Honourable Winston Churchill in the House of Commons, August 20th, 1940

Most people were quite unaware of what had happened, including his colleagues. We must not repeat the mistakes of the pre-war years, by behaving as though the enemies of peace and order are armed with only good intentions.

Prime Minister

It was wholly legitimate for Eden at this early stage to decide for himself who should be in the know. I will quote one other passage in that work: The general rule that the House of Lords must in matters of legislation ultimately give way to the House of Commons is one of the best-established maxims of modern constitutional ethics.

EVENTS 1940

If the enemy tries to sweep passages through these minefields, it will be the task of the Navy to destroy the mine-sweepers and any other forces employed to protect them.
