Durham recommande que le et le soient réunis en une seule colonie qui pourra ainsi devenir, éventuellement, majoritairement anglophone et ce, plus rapidement.

CANADA.—THE EARL OF DURHAM'S REPORT. (Hansard, 11 February 1839)

The party with majority would hold power and as long as they held support, they would keep power. It was to be observed, that in preparing a report, a Commissioner might state things, which it would be very proper to state, as matters to be considered by the Government, but which might be extremely improper to have laid before the public. There was no sense of drive or purpose among the population.
