Ramping up the rhetoric, generating guilt and provoking panic: the failed strategy of conservatives in the UCA (part III)

Like a few authors, he was in the habit of at once spinning thought into typography, not through the common medium of the writing-desk, but at the printer's case ; — instead of requiring to fix his thoughts by ink on paper, Dougal at once set tip his ideas in the composing-stick, ready for the chase and printing- press. However much of learning there may be here, we are not prepared to recommend a work which treats so sacred a subject with levity and coarseness. In the latter century it became more doctrinal, but always with the object of ascertaining more thoroughly the mind of the Holy Spirit, and bringing it to bear more fully on the life of man.
