After Luther, it was John Calvin of Geneva who contributed the most to advancing the depth and breadth of the Reformation. I have been very concerned for our generation because influential people can start something and so many begin doing the same thing without question.

Conclusion

The centuries leading up to the Reformation exposed the profound corruption at work when church leadership is seduced by wealth and power. And if there is no sovereign Creator, then the assessment is accurate. The Church and Parents Are Responsible for Education The reformers believed that the primary responsibility of educating children fell upon the church and parents with possible infrastructure support from the state.

The Reformation kept the new printing presses busy.

How did the Renaissance influence the Reformation?

He never held civil office and was often at odds with the civil authorities on matters of church polity.

The Protestant Reformation

Marie emphasized that women were not given a lesser or partial gospel than men, and likewise women were given the same command as men to share that gospel and contend for the faith. For centuries lay people were taught that the holiness of Christ made him unapproachable.
