Stephen King's Movie Adaptations, Ranked

Yet for adults, youth anxiety is expressed both in their fear for children, encompassing their protection from exposure to deleterious and damaging material, and their fear of them, in their capacity to transgress rules and elide boundaries. King song that it is named after, Stand By Me is one of those treasures that stands the test of time.

Analysis of Stephen King's Novels

I had to make this entry to call attention to the a superlative story that is otherwise overshadowed by the more famous works listed above. King and Bachman The process of recapitulation and summing up was complicated by the disclosure, in 1984, of Richard Bachman, the pseudonym under whose cover King had published five novels over a period of eight years. A delightful framing device in which garishly illustrated panels from the mag burst into life sets the macabre tone for this exercise in fun and reverential horror.
