The new GP contract: two steps forward for mental health equality

The long road to equality in physical health for people with a mental illness just got a little shorter.

The new GP contract: two steps forward for mental health equality

In going on to examine the framework document the paper conducts a rhetorical analysis of the document which this paper treats as a piece of instrumental discourse. Similarly, though there have been gradual improvements, the IAPT recovery rate for Black and Minority Ethnic BME service users is below that of their white-British counterparts 49. Additionally Jacqui was an appointed member of the Ministerial Advisory Group for Mental Health chaired by the Minister for Care and Support, which oversaw the implementation of the national mental health strategy and a member of the Ministerial Advisory Group for Mental Health.

West Herts Hospitals NHS Trust: Equalities Framework

Working in the NHS may have many challenges. One of the ways in which the Trust is responding to this challenge is through its Equalities Framework, which includes its Race Equality Scheme and Action Plan, Disability Equality Scheme and Action Plan, and Gender Equality Scheme and Action Plan. Engaging, retaining and recruiting skilled and dedicated staff is vital to support patients, step up on preventative healthcare and deliver sustainable and effective services everywhere.

“The Vital Connection”:a rhetoric on equality

Despite numerous cross-government efforts over the past 10 years, Black Caribbean and African people remain consistently overrepresented in mental health detention and are far more likely to come in contact with mental health services through the criminal justice system
