He decides that they must beg God for forgiveness and pray for his mercy.

Introduction to Paradise Lost by John Milton

What if that light, Sent from her through the wide transpicuous air, To the terrestrial moon be as a star, Enlightening her by day, as she by night This earth? As a form of personal catharsis, as an encoded manifesto for potential anti-Christianity, or as a means of revealing to readers the true depths of their uncertainties? Because he is lonely, God creates a woman for him from one of his ribs and Adam falls instantly in love with Eve. O fair foundation laid whereon to build Their ruin! The following is a summary of it.
