Bourdain's brilliantly written and wonderfully read, wild-but-true tales make the belly ache with laughter.

Would you presume yourself dumber than a squirrel because you're less adept at recalling the locations of hundreds of buried acorns? Tur lived out of a suitcase for a year and a half, following Trump around the country, powered by packets of peanut butter and kept clean with dry shampoo. His words were transcribed at the Pine Ridge Reservation in 1930 by John G. Or would you judge your perception of your surroundings as more sophisticated than that of a echolocating bat? An extraordinary meditation upon good and evil, grace and judgment, Lewis's revolutionary idea in the The Great Divorce is that the gates of Hell are locked from the inside.
