INTERGRATING THE DISABLED INTO SOCIETY

Hiring the handicapped confronts cultural uneasiness.

The Disability Integration Act

The parents must ensure that family life is satisfying for all its members by their example, their joy, their kindness. And many people with disabilities live, work, and relax with other people with disabilities, causing them to feel even more isolated.

Disability Awareness: How we can integrate people living with disabilities into our societies

This was the approach taken when Deloitte hired Mark Dumalski, who is visually-impaired, as a co-op student in 2005.

Disability Integration Act

Second, it assures that states and other long term services and supports providers deliver services and supports that allows people with disabilities to live in the most integrated setting, including their own homes. The Australian government recently Aus AID presented its strategy for inclusive development. A certain narrowness in our society's ability to accept the mentally handicapped seems to be connected In part with an unclear perception of the intrinsic dignity of the disabled human being.
